The Really Big Picture: RE must contextualise learning

throughout the School

In this webinar, Sr Judith will develop the concept that the person responsible for RE in a Catholic school or college, is in fact or should be, the theologian who assists the senior leadership in contextualising and delivering the whole curriculum. She will demonstrate through practical examples what this might look like.

Sr Judith Russi SSMN

Sr Judith is currently director of EducareM, an organisation that supports Catholic Education and Leadership (<https://educarem.org.uk/>). Sr Judith has worked for many years in all fields of Catholic education, teaching, leadership, advisory, Section 48 inspection and teachers' professional development & formation. She is the author of a variety of religious education books at primary, secondary and sixth-form levels. As a passionate national speaker and curriculum developer she continues to pioneer many innovative and challenging educational initiatives.
